

Cleaner Cooking Camp & Open Day 2015 - Draft Program Outline

Location: Lilongwe, Sol Farn and Masintha Ground, Kawale.

Dates: Tuesday March 10th to Friday March 13th, 2015.

Day	Time	Theme	Participants
Tuesday, March 10 th	AM	Welcome & introductions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Briefing from National Cook Stoves Task Force - Introduction to Cleaner Cooking Systems (Food and Fuel) Integration of cleaner cooking into development programmes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Working with local leaders for cleaner cooking (Concern Universal) 	Practitioners & field staff for DISCOVER and other organisations that are involved in and responsible for promotion of cleaner cooking.
	PM	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Micro-finance for cleaner cooking (Self Help Africa) Practical experience of cookstove diversity
Wednes- day, March 11 th	AM	Evidence from the field – update from research projects <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Stoves vrs. Sugar study (Fuel Lab, Luanar & Univ. North Carolina) - Stoves & Health (Cooking & Pneumonia Study - COM, LSTM) - Stoves & Safety (The Barriers Project - Univ. of Nottingham) Briefing & background of field visit - History of Chitetezo Mbaula Visit to new production group in Mtundu, Rural Lilongwe. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mitigating risks of clay extraction
	PM	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Firing process - quality control during production, pre-firing & post-firing - Monitoring socio-economic impact - Sustainable firewood management - energy woodlots - Quality control & traceability.
Thursday, March 12 th	AM	Integrating cleaner cooking into development programmes cont'd <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Integration of cleaner cooking into climate resilience (COOPI) - Cleaner cooking in an emergency response (Goal Malawi) Fuels as part of cleaner cooking systems <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Sustainable biomass in Malawi (Total Land Care Green) - Bamboo - a fast-growing multipurpose utility & energy crop (Afribam) - Custom-made fuel (Emerging Cooking Solutions - Zambia) Consumer perspectives & production systems <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Cookstove choice & willingness to pay (IFPRI) - Stoves to market (Rocketworks - RSA)
	PM	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Endev's contribution to 2 million by 2020 (Endev - GIZ) - Debrief & brai
Friday, March 13 th	9.00	Open Day for Cleaner Cooking Showcase of clean cooking technologies and practices	Representatives from Government, international community, civil society including DISCOVER & ERCP partners, academia & research institutions and entrepreneurs promoting renewable energy and energy efficiency & general public in Kawale.
	9.30	Opening remarks from Guest of Honour
	10.00	National Cook Stoves Task Force Briefing
	10.30	Discussion on building momentum for reaching the target of 2 million cook stoves by 2020
	11.00	Closing remarks

Notes:

Programme is subject to change. Expected number of participants Tuesday to Thursday is 40.

All participants are expected to pay their own transport, accomodation and board and to contribute MK25,000 / participant to cover lunch and snacks during the cleaner cooking camp.